HILL'S PREDICTION.

Rates Are Not Lower.

Washington April 16 .- That the Hous" in the next Congress will be controlled by the Democrats unless the Republican party carries out its platform pledges to revise the tariff downward is the substance of a declaration made yesterday New Hampshire to Have Regiment of In by James J. Hill.

"The people want the tariff revised downward," said Mr. Hill. "That means a reduction of rates. The people have not forgotten the promises made in the last campaign, and it is incumbent upon the party in power to make good. Party lines in the United States have never been so nearly obliteraned as at present, It, therefore, behooves the Republican majority in Congress to make its deeds square with the words attered by representatives of the party on the stump

Mr. Hill refused to make any comment reported by the Senate committee on Fi-

"I want to see the tariff question settled as soon as possible," he continued. "I am interested in the return of prosperity. We have had two lean years. Normal conditions of prosperity will be restored, I believe, as soon as the new tariff law is laid on the statutes."

The statement quoted was made by Mr. Hill immediately after a call on Speaker Cannon at the Capitol, Mr. Hill was accompanied to the speaker's office by Howard Elliott, president of the Northern Pucific, and John F. Carroll, counsel for the Burlington.
